Commission members receive reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in performing their duties as members of the planning commission, which is established by resolution of the City Council. Each planning commission member receives compensation of $189 per calendar quarter.

MEETINGS

Planning Commission meetings are held the 2nd Thursday of every month beginning at 6:00 p.m., Special meeting may be scheduled as well as occasional joint meetings with the City Council including an annual retreat in January. You will need to set aside these evenings to ensure you are in attendance. Agendas and related backup documents are provided via email the week prior to each meeting.

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS' AND EMPLOYEES' ETHICS ACT (Utah Code 10-3-1301-1312 attached)

The purposes of the "Municipal Officers' and Employees' Ethics Act" are to establish standards of conduct for municipal officers and employees and to require these persons to disclose actual or potential conflicts of interest between their public duties and their personal interests.

Included in the Act:

- ◆ Prohibits the use of position as municipal officer for personal benefit.
- ◆ Prohibits the receipt of gifts, loans or compensation that may influence the discharge of duties. (This does not apply to political contributions or bona fide loans made in the normal course of business.)
- ◆ Requires full disclosure by officials of an interest in a business that does business with or is regulated by government.
- ◆ Requires disclosure of any business entity where the employee or official is an officer, director, agent, employee or owns a substantial interest that does or anticipates doing business with the City.
- ◆ Disclosures shall be made in a sworn statement filed with the Mayor.

Any person who knowingly or intentionally violates the act, except for disclosure of business interest provisions, shall be removed from office, and is guilty of criminal conduct up to a felony of the second degree. Violation of disclosure requirements will result in removal of the officer who knowingly and intentionally violates this part from employment or office; and the municipality may rescind or void any contract or subcontract entered into pursuant to that transaction without returning any part of the consideration received by the municipality
