Commissioner Davis acknowledged the everyone's kind words and is looking forward to serving on the City Council.

DISCUSSION ITEMS6. Land Use Lookout for 2024

Community Services Director Trevor Cahoon explained there are several items that will be coming up in the city this next year. The State is requiring every city to update their general plan to make sure there is a component for water. This will require Weber Basin's help. The Planning Commission will be meeting with the City Council to discuss modifications to zoning maps. He reported the city was found out of compliance with the Moderate-Income Housing Plan and the City Council decided to amend the plan to include item F. General amendments and maintenance will take place to the city code as submitted by the Code Committee.

Mr. Cahoon expressed the State is looking at creating infrastructure districts. The Governor is interested in first home buyers and how cities can allow developers to construct homes for them. He added there will be impacts from the Legislature this next year.

REPORTS7. New Business

Trevor Cahoon's Last Meeting: His last day with the city will be December 21, 2023. Trevor will be taking the position of City Manager for Clinton City. He thanked everyone for the opportunity to work with them. Councilman Halverson thanked Trevor for his impact on how these meetings have been conducted. Commissioner Davis has enjoyed getting to know and working closer with Trevor. Commissioner Boatright agreed and thanked Trevor for helping to educate the Planning Commission. Commissioner McFadden expressed his appreciation. Commissioner Skola thanked Trevor for the high standard he has set.

Chris Roberts will replace Jeremy Davis seat and serving on the Planning Commission. The Planning Commission needs to consider a new chairperson for 2024. Commissioner Davis encouraged assigning the chairperson and co-chairperson serve on the Code Committee. Commissioner Losee will serve a second term.
